All Souls - May Sarton

*Did someone say that there would be an end,
An end, Oh, an end, to love and mourning?
Such voices speak when sleep and waking blend,
The cold bleak voices of the early morning
When all the birds are dumb in dark November—
Remember and forget, forget, remember.*

*After the false night, warm true voices, wake!
Voice of the dead that touches the cold living,
Through the pale sunlight once more gravely speak.
Tell me again, while the last leaves are falling:
“Dear child, what has been once so interwoven
Cannot be raveled, nor the gift ungiven.”*

*Now the dead move through all of us still glowing,
Mother and child, lover and lover mated,
Are wound and bound together and enflowing.
What has been plaited cannot be unplaited—
Only the strands grow richer with each loss
And memory makes kings and queens of us.*

*Dark into light, light into darkness, spin.
When all the birds have flown to some real haven,
We who find shelter in the warmth within,
Listen, and feel new-cherished, new-forgiven,
As the lost human voices speak through us and blend
Our complex love, our mourning without end.*

Welcome to our worship service.

Please join us for refreshments and time for fellowship immediately following the service.

Sunday School Students in Kindergarten through 8th grade begin in Children's Chapel in Stevenson Hall and will join their families for Communion in the Sanctuary.

CONGREGATIONAL GREETING

OPENING PRAYER

Almighty God, you have knit together your elect in one communion and fellowship in the mystical body of your Son Christ our Lord: Give us grace so to follow your blessed saints in all virtuous and godly living, that we may come to those ineffable joys that you have prepared for those who truly love you; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who with you and the Holy Spirit lives and reigns, one God, in glory everlasting. SELECTION OF READINGS

From Ecclesiasticus 44; 8-10

Some famous people have left behind a name,
so that others declare their praise.
But of others there is no memory;
they have perished as though they had never existed;
they have become as though they had never been born,
they and their children after them.
But these also were godly men and women,
whose righteous deeds have not been forgotten;
Their offspring will continue for ever,
and their glory will never be blotted out.
Their bodies are buried in peace,
but their name lives on generation after generation.

“What I mean to say is, we had been considerable. Had been loved. Not lonely, not lost, not freakish, but wise, each in his or her own way. Our departures caused pain. Those who had loved us sat upon their beds, heads in hand; lowered their faces to tabletops, making animal noises. We had been loved, I say, and remembering us, even many years later, people would smile, briefly gladdened at the memory.”

— George Saunders, Lincoln in the Bardo

Revelation 7:9-17

After this I looked, and there was a great multitude that no one could count, from every nation, from all tribes and peoples and languages, standing before the throne and before the Lamb, robed in white, with palm branches in their hands. They cried out in a loud voice, saying, “Salvation belongs to our God who is seated on the throne, and to the Lamb!” And all the angels stood around the throne and around the elders and the four living creatures, and they fell on their faces before the throne and worshiped God, singing, “Amen! Blessing and glory and wisdom and thanksgiving and honor and power and might be to our God forever and ever! Amen.”

Then one of the elders addressed me, saying, “Who are these, robed in white, and where have they come from?” I said to him, “Sir, you are the one that knows.” Then he said to me, “These are they who have come out of the great ordeal; they have washed their robes and made them white in the blood of the Lamb. For this reason they are before the throne of God, and worship God day and night within the temple, and the one who is seated on the throne will shelter them. They will hunger no more, and thirst no more; the sun will not strike them, nor any scorching heat; for the Lamb at the center of the throne will be their shepherd, and will guide them to springs of the water of life, and God will wipe away every tear from their eyes.”

Sharing of the Bread and Cup

EVERYONE is welcome to receive the Bread and Cup. You don't need to be a member of this church or any church. Come forward at the direction of the usher. Pick up a piece of bread, gluten or non-gluten, and dip it in the cup. If you are not sure what to do, ask, and we are glad to explain. The cup contains grape juice.

Children of any age may receive if their parents are comfortable, or you may bring them forward and we will give them a simple blessing. Everyone is welcome, without exception. If you would like communion brought to you, let the usher know and we are happy to bring it to you in your seat.

ANNOUNCEMENTS & EVENTS

November 5, 2017

The Transition Team has several goals in the process of preparing our Church Profile. While the survey completion is critical, we also are striving for as much transparency as we can achieve. With that in mind, we will be putting blurbs into the bulletin each week with updated information. A lot of this will be generated by questions that we get from the congregation, so thank you for your interest and involvement. Look for a “Transition Team” page on the church web site where each week’s message will be archived. Refer back to it for information that you may have missed.

The first questions that we are addressing relates to the open-ended survey question on the various models of Church Ministry. Most churches with more than one minister hire a “Senior Minister” who is charged with the responsibilities of leadership. This has been the model we have followed. But some churches use other models including:

Team Ministry-two or more ministers, each with an area of specialization, share the responsibilities of leadership.

Job Sharing or Co-Pastoring-two people who share the “Senior Minister” job.

Job Sharing Couples-two people who share the “Senior Minister” job who are married.

Part-Time Ministers

Bi-Vocational- A minister who works part time for the church and pursues another vocation.

For those of you wondering “Who is our Neighbor?” there is no single answer. Is it the people in our immediate vicinity using a literal translation of the word, or should we use a more biblical interpretation of local, global and international? The answer is both. Within the various missions of our church, we strive to connect with and make a difference to many groups of people. With that in mind, the questions on the survey that refer to our neighbor could have various connotations. Your answers will reflect who you would like for our church to connect with.

Our choice of our next minister will be influenced by our Church Profile, which will be prepared using the answers to the survey and the input from the Congregation. The survey is one of the tools through which YOUR VOICE will be heard. Every individual should complete the survey, and please note that it will take approximately 30 minutes to complete. The way the survey is set up, each question must be answered, and it must be completed in one session. We thank you for your input and opinions!

Haven’t taken the survey? Here is the link:

Have a question for the transition team? Want to set up a meeting with a transition team member? Here's the address to do so. All opinions are welcome!

Please speak with Eric Slosser or email him at eric@slosser.net.

ECO Words Winter moths, the small whitish insects attracted en masse to outdoor lights late November to early January, are an invasive species. The female moths don't fly but climb trees and lay eggs in the bark. The hatchlings bore into leaf buds in the spring. Left unchecked, the green inchworms can defoliate trees. Parasitic flies that prey on the winter moth larvae were released in Wellesley in 2008 and have been slowly lessening the impact in Needham. For information on how to protect your trees, please go to the EMT page on the church's website or contact EMT@needhamucc.org for more information.

Noah's Ark Preschool is in the process of enrolling children for the 2018 – 2019 school year! If you would like to tour the school and to receive more information, please call Laurie Davis at 781-449-2439. Additional information can be gathered from our website at: www.noahsarkneedham.org.

Rejoice in God's Saints

1. Re - joice in God's saints, to - day and all days;
 2. Some march with e - vents to turn them God's way;
 3. Re - joice in those saints, un - praised and un - known,
 4. Re - joice in God's saints, to - day and all days;

a world with - out saints for - gets how to praise.
 some need to with - draw, the bet - ter to pray.
 who bear some-one's cross or shoul - der their own.
 a world with - out saints for - gets how to praise.

Their faith in ac - quir - ing the hab - it of prayer,
 Some car - ry the gos - pel through fire and through flood;
 They shame our com - plain - ing, our com - forts, our cares;
 In lov - ing, in liv - ing, they prove it is true:

their depth of a - dor - ing, God, help us to share.
 our world is their par - ish; their pur - pose is God.
 what pa - tience in car - ing, what cour - age, is theirs!
 the way of self - giv - ing, God, leads us to you.
